(ii) of the amount of money or the percentage of each outstanding debt that the individual must accumulate before the provider will make a bona fide settlement offer to each creditor or debt collector;

(e) that establishment of a plan may adversely affect the individual's credit rating or credit scores;

(f) that nonpayment of debt may lead creditors to increase finance and other charges or undertake collection activity, including litigation;

(g) if the provider requests or requires the individual to place money in an account at an insured financial institution, that the individual:

(i) owns the funds held in the account;

(ii) may withdraw from the provider's plan at any time without penalty; and

(iii) is entitled to receive all money in the account, other than money that the provider earns as provided in Section 13-42-123, at the time the individual withdraws from the provider's plan;

(h) unless it is not true, that the provider may receive compensation from the creditors of the individual; and

(i) that, unless the individual is insolvent, if a creditor settles for less than the full amount of the debt, the plan may result in the creation of taxable income to the individual, even though the individual does not receive any money.

(5) If a provider may receive payments from an individual's creditors and the plan contemplates that the individual's creditors will reduce finance charges or fees for late payment, default, or delinquency, the provider may comply with Subsection (4) by providing the following disclosure, surrounded by black lines:

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR YOU TO CONSIDER

13-42-122. Trust account.

(1) All money paid to a provider by or on behalf of an individual for distribution to creditors pursuant to a plan is held in trust. No later than two business days after receipt, the provider shall deposit the money in a trust account established for the benefit of individuals to whom the provider is furnishing debt-management services.

(2) A provider whose agreement contemplates the settlement of an individual's debt for less than the principal amount of the debt may request or require the individual to place money in an account to be used to pay a creditor or the provider's fees, or both, if:

(a) the money is held in an insured account at a bank;

(b) the individual owns the money held in the account and is paid any interest accrued on the account;

(c) the entity administering the account is not the provider or an affiliate of the provider, unless the affiliate is described in Subsection 13-42-102(2)(b)(iv);

(d) the entity administering the account does not give or accept any money or other compensation in exchange for a referral of business involving debt-management services; and

(e) the individual may terminate the agreement at any time without penalty and on termination must receive all money in the account, other than money earned by the provider in compliance with this section.

(3) If an agreement contemplates the reduction of finance charges or fees for late payment, default, or delinquency, and the provider complies with Subsection (1), the provider may request or require the individual to make payment to be used for both distribution to creditors and payment of the provider's fees.

(4) Money held in trust by a provider is not property of the provider or its designee. The money is not available to creditors of the provider or designee, except an individual from whom or on whose behalf the provider received money, to the extent that the money has not been disbursed to creditors of the individual.

(5) A provider shall:

(a) maintain separate records of account for each individual to whom the provider is furnishing debt-management services;

(b) disburse money paid by or on behalf of the individual to creditors of the individual as disclosed in the agreement, except that:

(i) the provider may delay payment to the extent that a payment by the individual is not final; and

(ii) if a plan provides for regular periodic payments to creditors, the disbursement shall comply with the due dates established by each creditor; and

(c) promptly correct any payments that are not made or that are misdirected as a result of an error by the provider or other person in control of the trust account and reimburse the individual for any costs or fees imposed by a creditor as a result of the failure to pay or misdirection.

(6) A provider may not commingle money in a trust account established for the benefit of individuals to whom the provider is furnishing debt-management services with money of other persons.

(7) A trust account shall at all times have a cash balance equal to the sum of the balances of each individual's account.

(8) If a provider has established a trust account pursuant to Subsection (1), the provider shall reconcile the trust account at least once a month. The reconciliation shall compare the cash balance in the trust account with the sum of the balances in each individual's account. If the provider or its designee has more than one trust account, each trust account shall be individually reconciled.

(9) If a provider discovers, or has a reasonable suspicion of, embezzlement or other unlawful appropriation of money held in trust, the provider immediately shall notify the administrator by a method approved by the administrator. Unless the administrator by rule provides otherwise, no later than five days thereafter, the provider shall give notice to the administrator describing the remedial action taken or to be taken.

(10) If an individual terminates an agreement or it becomes reasonably apparent to a provider that a plan has failed, the provider shall promptly refund to the individual all money paid by or on behalf of the individual which has not been paid to creditors, less fees that are payable to the provider under Section 13-42-123.

(11) Before relocating a trust account from one bank to another, a provider shall inform the administrator of the name, business address, and telephone number of the new bank. As soon as practicable, the provider shall inform the administrator of the account number of the trust account at the new bank.

13-42-123. Fees and other charges.

(1) A provider may not impose directly or indirectly a fee or other charge on an individual or receive money from or on behalf of an individual for debt-management services except as permitted by this section.

(2) A provider may not impose charges or receive payment for debt-management services until the provider and the individual have signed an agreement that complies with Sections 13-42-119 and 13-42-128.

(3) If an individual assents to an agreement, a provider may not impose a fee or other charge for educational, counseling, or similar services, except as otherwise provided in this section and Subsection 13-42-128(4). The administrator may authorize a provider to charge a fee based on the nature and extent of the services furnished by the provider.

(4) (a) Subsections (4)(b) through (d) are subject to adjustment of dollar amounts pursuant to Subsection 13-42-132(6).

(b) If an individual assents to a plan that contemplates that creditors will reduce finance charges or fees for late payment, default, or delinquency, the provider may charge:

(i) a fee not exceeding $50 for consultation, obtaining a credit report, setting up an account, and the like; and

(ii) a monthly service fee, not to exceed $10 times the number of accounts remaining in a plan at the time the fee is assessed, but not more than $50 in any month.

(c) If an individual assents to an agreement that contemplates that creditors will settle debts for less than the principal amount of the debt, a provider may not request or receive payment of any fee or consideration for the provider's service unless:

(i) the provider has renegotiated, settled, reduced, or otherwise altered the terms of at least one debt under an agreement executed by the individual;

(ii) the individual has made at least one payment pursuant to that agreement between the individual and the creditor or debt collector; and

(iii) the fee or consideration for any individual debt that is renegotiated, settled, reduced, or otherwise altered:

(A) bears the same proportion to the total fee for renegotiating, settling, reducing, or altering the terms of the entire debt as the individual debt amount at the time the debt was enrolled in the service bears to the entire debt amount at the time the debt was enrolled in the service; or

(B) is a percentage of the amount saved as a result of the renegotiation, settlement, reduction, or alteration, as calculated under Subsection (4)(e), which percentage may not change from one individual debt to another.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection 13-42-128(4), if an individual does not assent to an agreement, a provider may receive for educational and counseling services it provides to the individual a fee not exceeding $100 or, with the approval of the administrator, a larger fee. The administrator may approve a fee larger than $100 if the nature and extent of the educational and counseling services warrant the larger fee.

(e) For purposes of Subsection (4)(c)(iii)(B), the amount saved is calculated as the difference between the amount owed at the time the debt is enrolled in the service and the amount actually paid to satisfy the debt.

(5) If, before the expiration of 90 days after the completion or termination of educational or counseling services, an individual assents to an agreement, the provider shall refund to the individual any fee paid pursuant to Subsection (4)(d).

(6) Except as otherwise provided in Subsections (3) and (4), if an agreement contemplates that creditors will settle an individual's debts for less than the principal amount of the debt:

(a) compensation for services in connection with settling a debt shall be reasonable and clearly disclosed in the agreement; and

(b) a fee for settling a debt may be collected only as the debt is settled.

(7) Subject to adjustment of the dollar amount pursuant to Subsection 13-42-132(6), if a payment to a provider by an individual under this chapter is dishonored, a provider may impose a reasonable charge on the individual, not to exceed the lesser of $25 and the amount permitted by law other than this chapter.

Amended by Chapter 152, 2012 General Session

13-42-124. Voluntary contributions.

A provider may not solicit a voluntary contribution from an individual or an affiliate of the individual for any service provided to the individual. A provider may accept voluntary contributions from an individual but, until 30 days after completion or termination of a plan, the aggregate amount of money received from or on behalf of the individual may not exceed the total amount the provider may charge the individual under Section 13-42-123.

Enacted by Chapter 154, 2006 General Session

13-42-125. Voidable agreements.

(1) If a provider imposes a fee or other charge or receives money or other payments not authorized by Section 13-42-123 or 13-42-124, the individual may void the agreement and recover as provided in Section 13-42-135.

(2) If a provider is not registered as required by this chapter when an individual assents to an agreement, the agreement is voidable by the individual.

(3) If an individual voids an agreement under Subsection (2), the provider does not have a claim against the individual for breach of contract or for restitution.

Enacted by Chapter 154, 2006 General Session

13-42-126. Retention of records.

(1) For each individual for whom a provider provides debt-management services, the provider shall maintain records for five years after the final payment made by the individual.

(2) The provider shall produce a copy of the records to the individual within a reasonable time after a request for the records.

(3) The provider may use electronic or other means of storage of the records.

Repealed and Re-enacted by Chapter 152, 2012 General Session

13-42-127. Periodic reports and retention of records.

(2) A provider, in a record, shall provide each individual for whom it has established a plan an accounting of the following information:

(a) the amount in an account containing money paid by or on behalf of the individual for fees or distribution to a creditor, or both, as of the date one month before the date of the accounting;

(d) the amounts deducted, as fees or otherwise, from the amount paid into the account since the last report;

(e) if, since the last report, a creditor has agreed to accept as payment in full an amount less than the principal amount of the debt owed by the individual:

(i) the total amount and terms of the settlement;

(ii) the amount of the debt when the individual assented to the plan;

(iii) the amount of the debt when the creditor agreed to the settlement; and

(iv) the calculation of a settlement fee; and

(f) the amount in the account as of the date of the accounting.

(3) If an agreement contemplates that a creditor will settle a debt for less than the principal amount of the debt and the provider delegates performance of its duties under this section to another person, the provider may provide the information required by Subsection (2)(e) in a record separate from the record containing the other information required by Subsection (2).

(1) If a provider whose agreements contemplate that creditors will reduce finance charges or fees for late payment, default, or delinquency advertises debt-management services, it shall disclose, in an easily comprehensible manner, that using a debt-management plan may make it harder for the individual to obtain credit.
